San Jose, California--Last night the Berryessa Union School District Board of Trustees held a special meeting to fill a vacant seat on the board due to the recent resignation of Trustee David Neighbors.

Five candidates were interviewed during open session. After hearing comments from the public, action was taken to vote on the candidates. Longtime Berryessa resident and retired administrator from the East Side Union High School District, Thelma Boac, was appointed to the Berryessa Union School District Board of Trustees, effective April 23, 2013. Mrs. Boac will assume the seat made vacant on March 8, 2013. She will serve until the term of office of the seat expires in November 2014.

Board President. Linda Chen, stated "I would like to welcome Mrs. Thelma Boac. I look forward to serving with an experienced and excellent educator who has made a huge difference in many young lives. I know Mrs. Boac will be a great asset for the Berryessa School Board and our students. Congratulations! Mrs. Boac."

Board members were impressed by all the qualified candidates. In addition to Boac, they were David S. Hernandez – Project Youth Connect Executive Director, Carol Percent – Former Instructional Aide and Physical Therapist, Rafael Sabic – Bank Sales Manager, Michael Schadeck – Adjunct Professor at Santa Clara University.

Mrs. Boac currently serves as an Adjunct Faculty Student Teacher Supervisor at both San Jose State University and the National Hispanic University.
