

INSTRUCTION

Language--Maintenance and Development Classes

The School Council at any District school may establish language maintenance and development classes for students who wish to develop or maintain proficiency in a language other than English. Criteria for student participation in language maintenance and development classes shall be established by the School Council. Parents or guardians must sign permission forms requesting student assignment to a language maintenance and development class before a student is assigned to the class.

Policy

Adopted: August 5, 1976

Revised Policy

Adopted: July 28, 1983