

INSTRUCTION

Extended School Year

An extended school year shall be provided for a minimum of 20 instructional days between the close of one academic year and the beginning of the succeeding academic year. Instruction will not be for less than the minimum school day for each grade level taught.

Pupils in special day classes are eligible for an extended school year under the following conditions/ circumstances:

1. Have handicaps which are likely to continue indefinitely or for a prolonged period.
2. If an interruption in the pupil's education would cause regression and the pupil has a limited recoupment capacity.
3. The need for extended school year has been determined by the individualized education program of the I.E.P. Team.
4. Eighth grade students who do not pass the minimum proficiency assessment.

Pupils identified for the Migrant Education Program are eligible for an extended school year.

Policy

Adopted: July 28, 1983